Village of Clemmons Overview

Discover Clemmons, a charming village in Forsyth County, NC, nestled in the picturesque Piedmont Triad just 10 miles southwest of Winston-Salem. Steeped in history, Clemmons was established in 1802 and later incorporated in 1986. The Village of Clemmons operates under a Council/Manager form of government, ensuring efficient and responsive governance.

With a thriving population of 21,823, Clemmons offers a vibrant and diverse community and is home to highly acclaimed public schools as well as the largest high school in Forsyth County. Clemmons' robust and growing economy embraces a rich and diverse faith community, thriving retail establishments and a healthy array of restaurants. Situated in the Northwestern Piedmont section of NC, Clemmons is an integral part of the Greensboro/Winston-Salem/High Point Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area.
